Oliver Sims

Beit Yeshua is very pleased to welcome Oliver Sims to its Spring Conference.

He, his wife Rose and their three teenage children live in North Yorkshire.

Oliver's faith journey began in 1998, at age 16, when a school friend invited him to a Christian meeting. Surprised to hear that he could have a personal relationship with God, he soon after became a believer.

Whilst studying languages at university, he met a Jewish believer who had a vast library of books and it was from there that Oliver's love for the Jewish people began.

He now works as Engagement Manager for the Churches Ministry among Jewish People (CMJ), equipping believers to engage Jewish people with the Gospel.

Oliver is a clear communicator of God's word with an easy style. He is also the creator of Jewish Engagement Training, a free online teaching and gospel engagement resource.

He has been involved in various outreaches, notably amongst the Jewish people of New York City and the Ultra-Orthodox of Manchester and London.

Oliver describes himself as a Gentile believer with a Jewish heart.
